

The background of the book cover is a detailed illustration of a porcupine standing in a lush green forest. The porcupine is dark brown with numerous sharp, light-colored quills. It is positioned on the left side of the cover, looking towards the right. The forest features large, gnarled trees with thick canopies of green leaves. The ground is covered in tall grass and a dirt path.

LIVRO RECOMENDADO

LER+
PLANO NACIONAL
DE LEITURA

everest editora

Texto e ilustrações de Raffaello Bergonse

Para que serve o ouriço?

everest